

I call on you and the FCC to hold an official public hearing on media consolidation in my state of New York.

Do the right thing and preserve the airwaves, which belong to the American people, not giant conglomerates.

We need your help now. We do not need more media consolidation.